

District of Arkansas & In the Common Pleas April & The Territory of Louisiana & Term 1811

Robert Clary Complainant of Dennis Chesholm of a plea, that he tendered to him Sixty Two Dollars of lawful money of the United States, which he to him; and unjustly detains from, ^{him} for that whereas the said Dennis Chesholm on the fourth day of June in the year of our Lord 1810 at Arkansas in the District aforesaid by his writing obligatory, sealed with the seal of the said ~~DP~~ Dennis Chesholm, and now shown to the Court of Common Pleas for the District of Arkansas, bearing date on the day & year aforesaid, acknowledged himself to be held & peremptorily bound to the bearer in the sum of Sixty Two Dollars, to be paid to the said Robert Clary when he should be thereto required; and the said Dennis Chesholm although often demanded, have not yet paid the said Sixty Two Dollars, to the said Robert Clary, or to any other person for him, but have hitherto altogether refused & still doth refuse to pay the same to him the said Robert Clary who is the bearer, to the Damage of the said Robert Clary Thirty Dollars & therefore he brings his suit
